

On June 24, 2008, plaintiff, proceeding pro se, filed a Civil Rights Complaint ("Complaint") pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On August 26, 2008, plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint ("FAC"). On October 6, 2008, the Court's Order granting plaintiff an extension of time to file his Notice of Submission, filed on September 26, 2008, was returned to the court undelivered and marked "Unknown at this address." Pursuant to Local Rule 41-6, plaintiff has an obligation to keep the court advised of a current address throughout the duration of his lawsuit. Plaintiff is advised that his failure to comply with his continuing obligation to keep the court apprised of a current mailing address, and any failure by plaintiff to comply with a court order because petitioner did not receive the order due to plaintiff's failure to inform the court of a current mailing address, could result in his case being dismissed for failure to obey the orders of this court and/or for want of prosecution. See Local Rule 41-6 ("If mail directed by the Clerk to a pro se plaintiff's address of record is returned undelivered by the Postal Service, and if, within fifteen (15) days of the service

1	date, such plaintiff fails to notify in writing, the Court and opposing parties of said plaintiff's current
2	address, the Court may dismiss the action with or without prejudice for want of prosecution.").
3	Based	on the foregoing, IT IS ORDERED THAT:
4	1.	Plaintiff shall file with the court a Notice of Change of Address no later than
5	November 6,	2008.
6	2.	Plaintiff's failure to timely comply with this Order or with his continuing
7	obligation to	keep the court apprised of a current mailing address, may result in this case
8	being dismis	sed for failure to obey the orders of this court and/or for want of prosecution.
9	Dated this 8th	day of October, 2008.
